HARDINSBURG

A. V. Whitworth, of Stephensport, was in town Monday.

Godfrey Ball who is on a street car line in Cincinnati met with an accident several days ago similar to the almost fatal one of several months ago. This time, however, he was not so seriously hurt. A car became unmanageable on a steep incline and ran into another. Mr. Ball was struck and knocked senseless. For several days he was in the hospital.

Mrs. Luke B. Reeves has returned from a visit at Ekron.

Mrs. J. H. Pile left Monday to visit at Webster and to attend the Lyddan-Kurtz wedding this afternoon.

W. S. Ball left Monday to take up his duties in the Corporation Department of the Secretary of State's office. Democrats and Republicans alike are glad to see Sherman Ball land a good office under the State administration. He is competent and has been a constant worker for the success of the Republican party. In success he has been on top. In defeat he has been one of the hurt ones, for he has been in the fight with his time, his fertile brain and with a pocket book that helped to bear the expenses in this county. We expect him to give an acceptable and creditable discharge of his duties and to be a feather in the appointment cap of the administration.

Taylor Beard is now regularly employed at Kincheloe's drug store. Mr. Beard is one among the oldest and best druggists in the county. The Kincheloe's are very fortunate in securing his services permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hendricks return from Louisville today after a few days with relatives in the city.

Toddie Allen has purchased of B. F. Beard the dwelling back of the Farmers Bank. Mr. Allen moved to town last week. He will continue in the timber business.

Miss Eva Hensley entertained her Sunday-school class of young men at her home on the evening of Washington's birthday. Every young man took a lady. The many couples were entertained with a varied program, consisting of music, recitations, games, etc. Dainty refreshments were served and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was had by all.

Granville Wilson, one of the county's prosperous farmers and model citizen's left yesterday for Eschite, Tillman county, Oklahoma, where he has purchased land and expects to make his permanent home. Mr. Wilson and wife and bright family of children are of the sort that give reputation and worth to a community. Should the newest state of the union send back to us any of her citizens in exchange, we could get no better than what we are giving up.

Drs. J. E. and A. M. Kincheloe amputated the right leg of Mrs. John Bland, on the pike, last Saturday. The amputation was made at the thigh and was done in consequence of a diseased bone, from which the patient had suffered for fifteen years.

Allen Kincheloe came down from Louisville to spend Saturday and Sunday.

The jury in the case of Vandymintle Powell, charged with the murder of Robert Miller, after several hours reported their inability to agree. The case, of course, will have to be tried again. Six were for acquittal.

Irrington, a queen little city of our county, is now talking graded school, and shall have it, for who has ever learned that Irrington stops with talking a good thing? Irrington people know the best things and secure them, and here's to one of the best enterprises she has ever projected.

Owen Fentress has moved to town from McDaniels.

Wm. Hall moved from this city Monday to Jess Howard's farm, near Glendene.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Zeigler, of New Bridge, Oregon, arrived last week to visit at Mrs. Zeigler's father's, Mr. Jas. Durham.

Morris H. Beard and son, Franklin, will leave Sunday to join Mrs. Beard for two weeks in Florida, where she, with Miss Jennie Green and Mr. B. F. Beard are spending the winter.

A Coffee Social will be given by the Ladies' Aid at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gardner on Thursday evening. Admission 10 cents.

The Assessor's book has been balanced and forwarded to Frankfort. The total assessed taxable property of the county is $4,423,883. Last year it was $3,983,143.

Marriage licenses issued in the last two weeks: Weller Marritt, Hester Glenn; I. T. Basham, Eddie Hedden; John A. Hinton, Sallie Kiper; J. T. Hook, Annie B. Grant; Benjamin Lattie, Ida Sturgeon; Owen Carman, Cora Preston; Martin L. Sutton, Carrie Simmons; Isel Bullock, Eva Robinson; J. V. Gaither, Annie B. Probus.

MERRY TIME

THURSDAY NIGHT.

Knights of Pythias Banquet A Success And Enjoyed By Many Guests.

VISITING MEMBERS PRESENT.

The music, the happy people and the good supper, all three, made the banquet Thursday night in Oelze's Hall a most enjoyable occasion. It was given in celebration of the forty-fourth anniversary of the Knights of Pythias Lodge of this city and the committee, Foster Heyser, Sam Conrad and Chas. May are to be congratulated on making it one of the most pleasant celebrations the lodge has ever had. It was much pleasure to their wives, sweethearts and visiting guests as well as a time of feasting. The children too, who were present, enjoyed the evening and they were not over looked by the entertaining committee by any means.

The Rev. B. M. Currie delivered the opening address after which a menu of three courses was served. It consisted of oyster soup, turkey, ham, salad, pickles, celery, ices and cakes.

Several out-of-town folks were present. Among those in the Hawesville party were: T. D. Hale, Dr. Paul Mitchell, C. D. Puckett, Milton Lambert, Arthur Sapp, William Mosley, Clarence Sterett, and Mr. Rosenblatt; Misses Lydia Goering, Myrtle Gillions and Miss Rosenblatt; Mrs. L. Ford and Mrs. Rosenblatt.

ENGLAND SAYS NO ALUM IN FOOD and strictly prohibits the sale of alum baking powder—

So does France

So does Germany

The sale of alum foods has been made illegal in Washington and the District of Columbia, and alum baking powders are everywhere recognized as injurious.

To protect yourself against alum, when ordering baking powder,

Say plainly—

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

and be very sure you get Royal.

Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar. It adds to the digestibility and wholesomeness of the food.
